Dustin James Fallen Police Officer Memorial Fund

Grants may be recommended by the donor to award scholarships at Valley Central High School (Orange County) and Beacon High School (Dutchess County) and to award grants to support the Summer Youth Police Cadet Program in the City of Beacon (Dutchess County).

Criteria for Scholarships:

The Fund shall award two $500 scholarships annually – one each at Valley Central High School and Beacon High School.

To qualify, students must:

- Be a graduating senior at either Valley Central High School or Beacon High School who are enrolling at a 2-year or 4-year college
- Pursue a career in law enforcement, emergency services, or military enlistment, with priority given to law enforcement
- Priority will also be given to applicants who are participating in or have participated in a youth police cadet program
- Priority will also be given to applicants who are existing members of emergency services who have at least 1 year in good standing in their department/organization

Scholarship applications shall be made available from and returned to the guidance counselors at each high school; A package of completed applications will be forwarded to the Fund Representatives who shall select the scholarship winners and notify the Community Foundation. Fund Representatives may elect to have the school district determine the scholarship winners.
